

WEDDINGS.

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of William Ustick Carre, of El Paso, and Miss Willie Maude Johnston at Thomson, Ga., at 2:30 p. m. on June 14.

Mr. Carre is assistant cashier of the American National bank and has a large circle of friends who will welcome his bride to El Paso.

The wedding will occur at the home of the bride's sisters in Thomson and Mr. and Mrs. Carre will be "at home" at 1612 East Rio Grande street after June 26.

Of interest to many El Pasoans will be the news of the marriage of Miss Leigh White to O. S. Osborn, which occurred on Wednesday at Salt Lake City, Utah.

The bride belongs to one of El Paso's oldest and most influential families. She is the daughter of the late Dr. Alward White, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Payne and sister of Dr. Alward and Owen White. Since her early girlhood she has been prominent in the social life of the city and her personal charm has won for her a host of friends.

The groom is well known in El Paso. He came to the southwest as the representative of Arthur Stillwell, in connection with the Orient railroad. He is now with the Harriman interests as chief engineer of the new Central Idaho railroad in course of construction from Richfield to Boise City, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Osborn will make their home at Richfield.

The forty-fifth wedding anniversary of J. L. Vaughan and Mrs. Abbie G. Vaughan, of Mesquite, Chihuahua, Mexico, was celebrated at the home of their daughter, Mrs. A. L. Carpenter, on Government Hill, this week. Quite a number of relatives and friends called to congratulate the venerable couple on their long and happy married life.

Mr. Vaughan is 68 years of age and Mrs. Vaughan 66. They have three daughters and two sons. The daughters are Mrs. Madge Butman, of Nubia, Texas; Mrs. Edna Shangle, San Marcial, N. M.; Mrs. Evadne Carpenter, Government Hill, El Paso; the sons are George L. Portland, of Highland Park, El Paso, and Labrope, on Wyoming street, El Paso. They have 26 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Wharton and Vesta Garra, living in Highland Park.

The Johnston Tribune of May 25, 1885, contained the following wedding notice: (This paper was destroyed by the memorable flood of May 31, 1889.)

The couple were married by Rev. D. H. Pollack, assisted by Rev. A. C. Ehrenfeld, at Port Perry, Allegheny county, Pa., Thursday, May 24, 1886. Mrs. Vaughan was Miss Abbie G. Struble.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan, better known in Mexico as "Don Juan" and "Donna Abbie," have been living in Mexico for 19 years—eleven years in the employ of the Mexican central, Mesquite, where they hope to return soon.

A quiet but pretty church wedding was that solemnized this morning at 7 o'clock at Trinity M. E. church, uniting the lives of Miss Inez Humphrey and Robert L. Parker.

A large number of friends were in attendance at the ceremony. Preceding the entrance of the bride couple, who came in alone, Miss Julia Pool sang "You," which was followed by the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Joseph Nixon.

The ceremony was said by the Rev. C. S. Wright, and the responses were clearly spoken.

The bride and groom left the church to the strains of the recessional march from Mendelssohn, and were driven at once to the station, leaving on the 8 o'clock train for a short wedding trip through New Mexico and Arizona.

The bride was handsomely attired in a traveling suit of tan, in tailored effect, with which a small tan hat trimmed with coral, was worn. Her flowers was a corsage bouquet of coral sweet peas, and the only ornament worn was a handsome strand of coral beads, a gift from the groom's mother.

The bride has lived here a number of years and is one of El Paso's attractive young women. She was the popular principal of the Highland Park school and well known in both educational and social circles.

Mr. Parker has been here four years, coming to this city from Houston, and during his residence has made here many friends. He is connected with the Denver Rock Drill Machinery company.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Parker will be at home to their friends in this city.

The marriage of Miss Ida May North to George G. Helde will take place on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. George Ferguson, 1312 Arizona street.

Rev. Henry Easter, of St. Clement's Episcopal church, will perform the ceremony.

The bride's sister, Miss Florence North, will attend as maid of honor, and Charles Brown will act as best man.

"The Corset Store of El Paso"

"We never tire of telling you that this is 'The Corset Store of El Paso.' We realize fully that a correctly fitting corset is absolutely necessary to a perfect-fitting gown. Besides this, an ill-fitting corset in the summertime is more than ordinarily uncomfortable. We gladly recommend any of the following corsets.

"REDFERN" "BON TON" "LILY OF FRANCE" "MODART" FRONT LACED
WARNER'S RUST PROOF
"ROYAL WORCESTER"

Brassieres Are Now An Absolute Essential to Your Comfort and Appearance

No well dressed woman will appear with the top line of her corset showing, as was the case before the introduction of the brassiere. Also, the low bust corset of present vogue requires a brassiere as an essential to comfort. We have a full stock in the following well known brassieres.

B. & J. H. & W. DE BEVOISE "NATURE'S RIVAL" "AERIENNE"
Prices range—50c, $1.00 and $1.50.

Our corset fitter will take pleasure in giving you full information regarding brassieres.
